Day by day we journey to the end of our high school days. As we look back on the year 1975 our minds focus on the special events we participated in. Through this book we hope you can relive the events most cherished to you.

Nineteen Hundred and Seventy Five

A year of memories, 9/11

School started...10/1-10/4...clean campus week...11/8...homecoming...1/17-11/23...girl's week...11/27...pep rally...12/13 silver bells...1/15...count dracula...3/10-3/14...superstar week.

3/14...sadie hawkins...3/19...iapanese students arrived...4/11...spring fever...4/28-5/2...boy's week...,5/5...cinco de mayo...

5/11-5/17...black awareness week....5/10...prom...5/22...senior kiddy day ...6/12...graduation

From the very first day pieces of the future were being put together. Little by little we built up what would soon become many memories. The lively sounds from Sadie Hawkins, reliving childhood on Kiddie Day, worthwhile experiences gained from boy's and girl's week, the evening of enchantment Silver Bells, the most romantic evening of the year, the Senior Prom. For many it will be the last time to share precious moments. Finally we come to graduation. The day we look forward to, and yet we try to put aside Day by day three short years are remembered so vividly and candidly in our minds. The days we thought would never end are over

CABINET MEMBERS AND EPHEBIANS LEAD

WASIOSHINDWAS CABINET F'74 Vice President Gwen Harville, Treasurer Susan Ichiyama, Historian Libran Jefferson, Secretary Lynn Ikemoto, President Ochorah Shotlow

We "totem" to smile, but Richard didn't get the message — Brian Yamaguchi, Lynn Ikemoto, Richard Villasenor and Leilani Cooper.

Led by President Deborah Shotlow, the Wasioshindwas Cabinet put in much time and effort to make it a memorable year for all of us

This year, exceptional seniors were honored by faculty and fellow Wasioshindwas for outstanding character, scholastic record and service achievement. Only one out of forty seniors gain membership into the Ephebian Honor Society. The major purpose is to focus the attention of the outstanding graduates upon matters of civic and community leadership, betterment, and service, and to inform and encourage the membership to active participation in these directions. This year twenty-five seniors were recognized by school and community as distinguished leaders. To each honorary member, we extend a sincere congratulations!

Climbing to the top are Debra Schloe, Gwen Harville and Les Higa.

Posed, poised and polished are Karen Jackson and Gale Wuchner.

The eyes have it frene Hojo, Laurie Neal and Nelson King

THE WAY FOR THE 1975 WASIOSHINDWAS

Dale Morimizu, Jean Alexander, Susan Ichiyama and Glenn Moromisato are all smiles

Taking it one step at a time to make it to the top are Liz Fushiki, Chris Hernandez, Diana Bremmer, Teresa Smith and Robin Nakao

Keith Dong, Teresa Yue, Paul Kurashima and Kathy Nakamatsu. Monkey see, Monkey do, these four made Ephebians too

The Gardena Mohicans came from behind to score a 7-6 victory over the Carson Colts for the 1974 Marine League Championship Carson came into the game with the momentum of four straight Marine League victories, and took the opening kickoff 76 yards in 10 plays to grab a quick 6-0 lead over the Mohicans. Las Laureas and knights show their talents at Clearview Convalescent Home

The Knights and Las Laureas, top honor and service club at Gardena, completed another successful year. They were led under the leadership of Commanders Brian Yamaguchi and Peter Induye, and Presidents Gale Wuchner and Rosanne Cohoe. Mr. Irby, Mr. James, and Mrs. Horn acted as advisors. During the school year, the Knights and L.L.'s had such traditional projects as the Homecoming Mum Sale, Silver Bells Dance, and Parent Appreciation Night. New activities attempted were an Easter Welfare Project, Christmas Caroling, and an exchange with the San Pedro Knights and Knightettes. Besides these events the two clubs also performed their usual ushering of sport activities and special assemblies. The Las Laureas in addition, brightened our campus by planting spring flowers for Mr Rudoff

The Ski Club of Gardena High went through a disappointing year. Although they did have a car wash to raise money, tack of snow and bad conditions hampered their trips Meeting every Tuesday in Co-sponsor Mr Dennis Sullivan's room, the club was led throughout the year by President Barbara Schloe and Sponsor Mr. Michael Gray.

Many quiet and pollution free days were enjoyed by the Trailblazers this past year. The hikers of GHS enjoyed many Saturdays in the nearby San Gabriel and San Bernar dino Mountains. In addition to their usual weekend hikes, the Trailblazers trucked up to Yosemite during Thanksgiving vacation, enjoyed a snowy trip in Paim Springs, and a midnight hike guided only by the moon light. They were led by Presidents Gary Barton and Mark Nakamura and their intrepid sponsor, Mr. James.

Bad conditions like this exemplified the type of year for Gardena Ski Club

Mr. Yearbook Ends 41 Years with Gardena

From 1934 to this his last edition, Mr John F. Cannicott has guided successive Editors, Staffs and Advisors of the El Arador. The Man was affectionately called Jack and it is with that affection, respect and appreciation that I reflect on the life of a close, personal friendship kindled by 18 years — Day By Day with Jack

Mr. Cannicott was born and raised in England. At 16 and with his mother's request not to work in the coal mines he decided to come to America and seek his fortune. He never saw his parents again. Working while attending the University of Minnesota he conceived the idea of a custom designed theme around which each school could build their yearbook His ideas caught on as he assisted each Staff in implementing their theme. He took to the road calling on high schools and colleges throughout the middlewest There were few small towns in lowa, Nebraska or Minnesota that you could mention that Tack couldn't tell you the name of their school yearbook and the years that he published it. He always liked lowa People and was very fond of the associations he had there. He remembered them as good, fair and genuine people

He had an intense dislike for written contracts — his word was his bond and he expected the same from the people he worked with. There is a school in the country' that Jack has printed their yearbook for the past 47 consecutive years without a contract. I believe he felt that a contract inhibited his freedom to do extra things for the Editor and the school He wasn't satisfied doing just what he had to do - would never do less than was expected - and always was there to do more even if it meant paying for it out of his own pocket. I know this as a fact, with a small school that just didn't have the money to buy color for their Dedication page - Jack paid for the color separations because, "she deserved more And because that's the kind of Man Jack

Five times in the last eighteen years El Arador has been dedicated to an individual El Arador 1967 was dedicated to Mr. Jack Cannicott . . "He was an extraordinarily hard, conscientious worker to whom detail is highly important."

His vacation days were few and limited to July or August when he could sneak away to fish Albacore and Blue Fin Tuna in the Coronado Islands. Relaxing or working Jack wanted to share his life with others and invited a photographer friend of his and me to "fish the Coronados". The photographer, while he watched the Cormorants circle around the island, relayed his personal story to me of how he was saved from prison due to the faith and trust Jack had in him. He further asked if I was aware of the greatness. of this one-of-a-kind man we called Jack The hot summer days Mr. Cannicott would drive to the 'country' and hunt doves. In the Fall it was University of Southern California Football and the challenge of new yearbooks to be created

Tuesdays were Jack's Day at Gardena High and he would always plan to get here just before lunch. Lunch in the Cafeteria and the rest of the afternoon spent with the Editor, Staff and Advisor was his Tuesday menu. He always enjoyed talking with Mr. Syl Ledesma who was a student at Compton when lack made their engravings. Gardena was a favorite. school of his and he had more pride in it than some of our students have. It was a compassionate Jack that called me at home late in the evening on several occasions to ask how Kenny Smith was get ting along. To my knowledge Kenny and he had never met. Mohican football was second only to the Trojans. He perused the sports pages in detail and was well aware of the position of our Mohicans in League and City play

Early in the morning and late in the evening phone calls were typically Jack, but no matter how important the call was or how limited his time he always took the time to ask, "How's the boy in Utah? and the boy down south?... and the little guy?" When Rene answered the phone he spent as long with her as he did me. He followed Terry from birth through all the stages little boys go through

His inside coat pocket was his office away It was 'stuffed' with paper napkins on which he had made business notations, correspondence from associates, letters from former Yearbook Editors now in college and once in awhile a little card on which was printed a risque joke. Somewhere in his outside coat pocket he could always find a roll of life savers, some gumdrops or a few pieces of butterscotch candy

He loved kids and Yearbook production was his life, Jack couldn't retire from that combination even though he was financially able to do so. The last few years Mr. Cannicott reduced his publication load to a few select schools that he knew could manage with an occasional visit from him once they got started. His health had not been the same since he fell from a ladder and hurt his back helping a friend trim a tree a few years ago. Following a heart attack and two light strokes he was in a hospital to mark his 77th birthday on January 26. Jack passed away on March 10, 1975 in Lynwood.

El Arador '67 Editor Susan Izu wrote, It is reassuring to know there are people like this who really care". El Arador '75 Student Life Editor Shari Yamamoto remarked, "He's the man who brought us the candy". Jack would like to be remembered in that way. He really did care and rarely walked into class without the familiar brown paper bag with "goodies". Sincere... generous... that was Jack.

Room D 5 has been the home of El Arador and Jack's Tuesday Home since 1957. On the bulletin boards hang numerous schedules for deadlines, pictures for printing and memos. Stacked throughout the shelves are remnants of past yearbook staffs, proof sheets from the publishing company, repros with smeared thumb prints, unused pictures with out-dated fashions and sketchy art designs. And this fall when the 1976 Annual Staff begins work Day by Day and Mr Jack Cannicott will become a part of that past. He left a record of over 60 years in yearbook publications and never had a late book with any of his schools. In that same period of time he has won more Medalist and All American ratings than any publisher on the West Coast. Above all this it is his friendship that we miss the

There will always be a special place set apart from the rest of my friends for the Man we called Jack

Gene Cattermole El Arador Advisor 1957-1975

A SPECIAL THANK-YOU TO SOME SPECIAL PEOPLE . . .

The 1975 El Arador wasn't the result of just one or two people, but an accumulation of hard work and dedication but out by many different people both in and out of class

Very few professionals work on the actual planning and laying out of the book, but a fe who did give us a hand and i.e. serve a great thank-you are: Linda Grindstaff from Smith Pacific who handled sur cover, the staff at Franklin Press who always do an excellent job in printing our book, and several Gardena staff members, Sil Ledesma who printed our yearbook receipts and posters, and finally Orlando Green who handles the entire sales and distribution of the yearbook

This year, the yearbook staff consisted of 24 people. Every one of them gave alot of themselves and their time to put this book together. I just can't put into words the gratitude I have for all of your help this past year

Sports has always been an important part of Mohican life and so it also is in the El Arador. This is a section with things happening all semester long. It takes a vell organized, and hardworking group to hundle this section. Dale (Doc). Morimizu was the Sports editor this year, with the help of Susan Kwon and Tammy Gin.

Both the Se r and Underclass . . tions are involved with alot of technics work which takes alot of patience and dedication. Jan Okamoto (Editor) and Stella Ogawa cropped, panneled and pasted over 2,000 underclass pictures and names. Betty Katsuki headed the Sentor section with the help of Lynn Ikemoto and Donna Kariyama. The three of them accumulated senior activity sheets from practically every senior at Gardena, which isn't a very easy job

Eileen Kadowaki (editors and Sharon Ekemoto spent long hours on the Faculty section hich not only included the entire Gardena faculty and administration, but also the different officeworkers who seldom receive recognition

The Student Life section is an unpre-" one which requires alot of patience and tolerance. Many events an planned and scheduled - - a cancelled at the last minute. This year it was handled by Shari Yamamoto (editor). Susan Ichiyama, and Lillian Jefferson.

Organizations is one of the most frustrating sections but Vicki (Slick) Ishida (editor), Danny (Nose) Fujimori, and Grace Tanaka showed perserverance in ... ring every organization at Gardena High Schoo & hich has a constitution on

The only outside financing this book receives other than yearlen't sales comes from our advertisers Suzan Mochizuki with the help of Suzanne John and Debra Snedden handled this section This year, the 1975 El Arador staff ant to businesses in the community and sold 3 992 dollars 1 orth of advertisements

I also want to thank Susan Ichiyama, Suzanne John, Donna Kariyama, and Joy Tomikawa for their art ork. The cover was designed by Susan

The yearbook class depends heavily ... ils pholographers. This year, our head photographer was Joey Ikemoto. Jaey along with Jon (John-boy) Yoshinaga took and printed over 95% of the photos which appear in this book. Thanks ... much for all of the time and effort you put into printing and re-printing the pictures

Tak Isobe like always provided us mth all of the Senior portraits and adertising pictures. Many other photographers provided us with essential photos used in the introduction and divinons. They were Gene Cattermole, Charlie Farrell, Elaine "Love" Flanders, Steve Mau, Dave Myers, Hugh Ryono, Scott Shimane, David Wei, Ken Yonemura, and Bert Yoshinaga.

Now I'd like to make a special thankyou to two people who helped me make it through this year. They are Diana Bremmer, and Gene (Catt) Cattermole. In September, I didn't give Diana any specific assignment or job, but she as a great help relieving the pressures hich built up throughout the year. There was seldom a day when Catt left for home before 7 00. Although we did not al vys agree on things, I know nouthat everything he said or did came from his 19 years of experier - as the yearbook advisor, and just 'cur he cared

This has been a year in which I learned alot about different people, and especially about myself I learned from all of the little things, the headaches, the hassels, and the tears that came up from day to day in the making of this book. I hope that you, the reader, also experienced the little things that happened day by day in 1975
